Advances Report
Due Monday, February 27

You must submit an individual report on the advances of your term paper. Additionally, you need to coordinate with your teammates and produce a report of your group project. Each report must be typed and not longer than one page. At minimum your reports should contain the following information:

1. Title

2. An outline where the sections and subsections of your paper are clearly identified

3. A brief paragraph explaining the relevance of your topic and how it might help the class and yourself on advancing the understanding of the globalization process.

4. At least three reliable sources you are planning to use.
